

For Immediate Release

Media Contact:

Myra Williams, 239.592.6787
myrawilliams@charityforchange.org

Feinstein Named Women of Initiative Honoree

Naples, FL – 12/8/16– Charity for Change, a nonprofit organization dedicated to teaching character, charity and community involvement through academic and charitable activities, is pleased to announce that Board Chair, Kathy Feinstein was named a 2017 Women of Initiative Honoree by the Women’s Foundation of the Community Foundation of Collier County during the December 2, 2016, Power of the Purse luncheon.

Feinstein’s leadership as Chair of both the Advisory and Governing Boards for Charity for Change has helped the Giver Program expand from reaching 1,500 children in 2008, to more than 10,000 children weekly.

“Kathy embodies the spirit of the Charity for Change Giver Program,” explains President and CEO Karen Conley. “Her vision, approach, communication, positive attitude and humble method of engaging others to give and achieve their best is inspiring to fellow board and committee members, as well as staff and volunteers. She truly exemplifies the core values of character, philanthropy, volunteerism and community involvement, the foundation of the Giver Program.”

Feinstein, along with nine additional women from Collier County, will be honored for their philanthropy, volunteerism and community leadership during the Community Foundation’s Women of Initiative Luncheon on Friday, March 31, 2017, at The-Ritz Carlton, Naples Beach Resort. For more information on the event, please contact Carri Kreisman at the Community Foundation: 239.307.4526.

Charity for Change’s acclaimed Giver Program is a 29-week curricula combining academics, charitable giving and character development to help students develop skill sets needed for success in the classroom, future careers and life. The in-school, afterschool and summer programs use innovative and multi-faceted approaches to build a foundation for volunteerism, community involvement, social and personal responsibility.

By engaging students, teachers, families and community partners, more than 20,000 students have raised $115,000 for the 72 partner nonprofit organizations since 2008.

For more information on Charity for Change, as well as sponsorship and partnering opportunities, please call 239.592.6787, or visit www.charityforchange.org

###

Charity for Change is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to enhancing student academic and personal achievement, character development and community engagement by teaching empathy, compassion and the giving spirit through its proprietary academic curricula. In-school, afterschool and summer programs bring character education to life for students using innovative and multi-faceted approaches that involve students, teachers, families and community partners to build a foundation for volunteerism, community involvement, social and personal responsibility. Since 2008, more than 20,000 students have raised $115,000 for the 72 partner nonprofit organizations. To learn more, please call 239.592.6787, or visit www.charityforchange.org.