FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NAPLES, Fla. – February 21, 2017 Charity for Change, a Naples-based nonprofit received a $2,500 sponsorship from the Home-Tech corporation. The sponsorship will underwrite the Charity for Change Giver Program for 100 elementary school-aged children in Collier County.

The Giver Program is an evidenced-based academic curriculum with an overarching focus on character and community involvement through charity and volunteerism. Home-Tech has been a long-time supporter of Charity for Change and the Giver Program.

"We are pleased to continue supporting Charity for Change and the Giver Program," said Home-Tech CFO, Sonya Sawyer. "Through the program children learn the importance of charity, community and character, all important pillar stones of Home-Techs' success and commitment to excellence."

Currently, more than 3,500 Collier County students are participating in the Charity for Change Giver Program. The program in Collier County is supported through individual donations, corporate sponsorships and foundation grants.
